Anti planner (ANTPLNR)

Stakeholder(s):

Randal O'Toole

Cato Institute :

*The Cato Institute is a non-profit public policy research foundation that promotes the traditional American principles of limited government, individual liberty, free markets and peace. The Institute is named for Cato's Letters, a series of libertarian pamphlets that helped lay the philosophical foundation for the American Revolution. In 2008, the Cato Institute published the ultimate Antiplanning book, The Best-Laid Plans: How Government Planning Harms Your Quality of Life, Your Pocketbook, and Your Future. In 2010, it published the ultimate anti-transportation planning book, Gridlock: Why We're Stuck in Traffic and What to Do About It. In 2012, it published the ultimate anti-urban planning book, American Nightmare: How Government Undermines the Dream of Homeownership. Most recently, in 2018 Cato published Romance of the Rails, which addresses urban rail transit and intercity rail from the point of view of someone who loves passenger trains but doesn't believe other people should be forced to subsidize their hobbies. The book includes a detailed history of passenger service going back to 1825 and is supported by 60 photographs. The Cato*

Institute has also published many commentaries and other articles by the Antiplanner.

American Dream Coalition :

The American Dream Coalition helps its members protect freedom, mobility, and affordable homeownership. The Coalition holds an annual conference and publishes reports and other information useful to people who are upset with the effects of intrusive government planning on the livability of their cities and regions. The American Dream Coalition has also published several reports by the Antiplanner...

Thoreau Institute :

The Thoreau Institute is a non-profit organization that seeks ways to protect the environment without big government. The Institute has prepared comprehensive analyses of the Forest Service, Park Service, Bureau of Land Management, more than 150 state land and resource agencies, dozens of transit systems, and more than a dozen metropolitan planning organizations. Many of these reports were written by the Antiplanner ...
