

About Enlivening Edge

The original idea was to create an online publication through which people and organizations by sharing their stories could discover each other, learn about and contact each other, and begin to learn from and collaborate with one another... With such a large-scale purpose, the original idea of a “newsletter” morphed in ways we couldn’t imagine—touching and inspiring thousands of people across the world through our four primary services and other projects from time to time.

Our four main expressions of our Evolutionary Purpose are EE Magazine, EE Community Conversations, EE Facebook Community, and EE’s Event Calendar.

Enlivening Edge (ENLVE)

Description:

Enlivening Edge is an international community of collaborators and Partners drawn together by a shared purpose—to nourish the growing ecosystem of Next-Stage (including Teal) organizations. We are interwoven in a global vanguard of people and organizations transforming their workplaces for the benefit of all.

Stakeholder(s):

Frederic Laloux :

Inspired by Frederic Laloux's book Reinventing Organizations, Enlivening Edge was launched in 2015. It was born through the hands, hearts, and minds of a small but passionate crew and a small seed fund provided by Future Considerations.

Future Considerations :

We are a global consultancy that co-creates with forward thinking clients to build their capacity for the future. Our work develops leaders, strengthens relationships and helps organizations, institutions and communities find direction and purpose in complex environments.

Enlivening Edge Volunteers :

Our community of volunteers is vibrant, warm, and forward-leaning. If you feel aligned with who we are, what we do, and why we do it, here are some ways to get involved: <https://www.enliveningedge.org/10-ways/>

Enlivening Edge Team :

Enlivening Edge is small band of Partners surrounded by a larger tribe of collaborators and friends. Each of us is attracted to the possibility of amplifying human dignity within organizations. Our team includes correspondents who bring news from countries and sectors where the Teal wave is washing ashore. And it includes correspondents who use Enlivening Edge to connect various streams of organizational and social transformation. At EE, we strive to practice Teal organization principles. For example, we've adopted Holacracy® as our approach to self-management. We practice wholeness by bringing our bodies, minds, hearts, and souls to the work. And we follow our evolutionary purpose by continually reinventing who we are and what we do. Meet our Partners below. If you feel drawn to work and play with us, see how you can join our team.

Eric Babinet :

I am passionate about helping organizations learn to operate with greater self-management and distributed authority. For many years I've helped software teams be more self-managing and adaptive through the use of Agile Software Development...

George Pór :

Mahatma Gandhi said once if you want a movement to succeed, create a newspaper. No doubt, today he would say, create a news site. That's what inspired me to launch, in 2015, Enlivening Edge ...

Helen Rawlinson :

My focus is on how the world of work and organisations is changing drastically. I help people navigate this more complex, uncertain environment by accessing a higher level of thinking and expanded consciousness...

Anna Betz :

I am intrigued by the interconnectedness of global, local, collective, and individual realities—right down to the cells of our human bodies. That's why energizing the roles of Health Sector Editor and Community Builder at EE...

Alia Aurami :

Enlivening Edge lets me dance with the emergent future, along with other awesome dancers from around the globe, co-creating our living example of a next-stage organization. Within Enlivening Edge, I energize roles such as Magazine ...

Social Systems

Essence: Nourishing the conscious evolution of people, organizations, and social systems.

DEMONSTRATION ONLY

2. Knowledge & Inspiration

Weave people, knowledge, and inspiration.

Blessing: Weaving people, knowledge, and inspiration to strengthen the ecosystem of next-stage movements.

2.1. Connections

Catalyze connections among people and organizations.

We do that primarily by catalyzing connections among people and organizations who are co-creating the next stage of consciousness in organizations.

Stakeholder(s):

People :

People with enough connections tend to realize they are part of a social ecosystem, a “whole” with its own collective intelligence.

Organizations

3. Intelligence, Consciousness & Impact

Boost collective intelligence, consciousness, and impact.

Mission: Boosting the emergent collective intelligence, consciousness, and impact of the ecosystem of next-stage organizations and initiatives, until they become the new mainstream of organizing work.

3.1. Synergies

Enable individuals and organizations to function with collective intelligence.

The synergies made possible by the parts functioning with the intelligence of a whole are creating powerful movements that transform individuals, organizations, societal sectors, and we hope, the world.
