German Marshall Fund of the United States (GMF)

Description:

The German Marshall Fund of the United States (GMF) is a non-partisan policy organization committed to the idea that the United States and Europe are stronger together. GMF champions the principles of democracy, human rights, and international cooperation, which have served as the bedrock of peace and prosperity since the end of World War II, but are under increasing strain.

1. Transatlantic Issues

Work on issues critical to transatlantic interests

GMF works on issues critical to transatlantic interests in the 21st century, including the future of democracy, security and geopolitics, alliances and the rise of China, and technology and innovation. By drawing on and fostering a community of people with diverse life experiences and political perspectives, GMF pursues its mission by driving the policy debate through cutting-edge analysis and convening, fortifying civil society, and cultivating the next generation of leaders on both sides of the Atlantic.

1.1. Democracy

Strengthen the resilience and reimagine the future of democracy

Future of Democracy ~ The surge of authoritarian threats, political polarization, and widening social inequalities continue to fuel democratic backsliding and undermine the democratic values on which our systems and institutions rest. The urgency to confront these global crises require societies to strengthen their resilience and reimagine democracy's future.

1.2. China

Coordinate action to compete and defend against the implications of China's rise

Global Implications of China's Rise ~ In a world reshaped by China's growing economic might and influence, the United States and Europe have struggled to adjust and respond to this new geopolitical reality. As the implications of China's rise prove costly, the ability to compete and defend will require coordinated action.

Stakeholder(s):

China

1.3. Security & Geopolitics

Foster cooperation between the United States and Europe to meet and geopolitical challenges

The international order faces mounting pressure. Revisionist states, emerging powers, and new threats proliferate. Cooperation between the United States and Europe is foundational to meeting today's security and geopolitical challenges.

Stakeholder(s):

Europe

1.4. Technology & Innovation

Monitor, accelerate, leverage and safeguard the use of technology

Emerging technologies and innovations are rapidly changing the world around us, bringing new opportunities for connectivity and economic growth, while also deepening the digital divide. As trends in technology accelerate, leveraging and safeguarding their use and monitoring the pace in which they progress will be crucial.

2.1. South-East Europe

Supports democracy, good governance, and Euro-Atlantic integration in South-East Europe

Stakeholder(s):

Balkan Trust for Democracy :

The Balkan Trust for Democracy (BTD) is an award-winning transatlantic initiative that supports democracy, good governance, and Euro-Atlantic integration in South-East Europe.

South-East Europe

2.2. Black Sea Region

Foster a vigilant civil society in the countries of the Black Sea region

Black Sea Trust for Regional Cooperation ~ The Black Sea Trust fosters a vigilant civil society—the key to democratic progress, social advancement, and conflict resolution in the countries of the Black Sea region.

Stakeholder(s):

Black Sea Region

2.3. Belarus

Enable citizen initiatives, independent media, and vulnerable groups to resist the dictatorial regime and work towards the democratization of Belarus

Stakeholder(s):

Fund for Belarus Democracy :

The Fund for Belarus Democracy makes support available to citizen initiatives, independent media, and vulnerable groups, enabling them to resist the dictatorial regime and work towards the democratization of Belarus.

Belarus

3. Leadership Development

Advance the transatlantic relationship through the cultivation of diverse leaders from both sides of the Atlantic

Stakeholder(s)

Marshall Memorial Fellowship :

LP's portfolio of initiatives for established, mid-career, and next-generation leaders includes the Marshall Memorial Fellowship (MMF), the Transatlantic Inclusion Leaders Network (TILN), the Manfred Wörner Seminar (MWS), the Policy Designers Network (PDN), and the Leadership Lab (LL).

Transatlantic Inclusion Leaders Network (TILN)

Manfred Wörner Seminar (MWS)

Policy Designers Network (PDN)

Leadership Lab (LL)

GMF's Leadership Programs (LP) cultivates the next generation of leaders on both sides of the Atlantic. By fostering a community of leaders with diverse life experiences and political perspectives along with a commitment to the transatlantic partnership, LP advances GMF's transatlantic agenda on the future of democracy, inclusive and sustainable societies, security and defense, geopolitics, and technology and innovation. Based on the principles of democracy, human rights, and international cooperation, LP builds leadership capacity through fellowships, action grants, newly enhanced digital networks, distance learning, and the engagement of more than 4,000 alumni throughout Europe, the United States, and partnership countries.
